

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Dr. Baldy Called to Hartsville, S. C., and Is Considering the Matter.

RETURNED ON YESTERDAY

Local Talent Draws Large Crowd at Elks' Bazaar—C. C. Jones Heard From.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 102 Hull Street.

Rev. E. V. Baldy, pastor of Baltimore Street Baptist Church, has returned from Hartsville, S. C., where he had been extended a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church. Dr. Baldy stated yesterday that he now had the matter under consideration.

He also said that it was erroneously reported that he had gone to Lexington to preach a trial sermon. He said a representative of the Hartsville church came here and attended his service, but at the time he was not aware of the South Carolinian mission. A few days later he received a letter from the Hartsville church, charging him with not having accepted the call. He informed the church that he would prefer looking over the field before he accepted. Dr. Baldy was most enthusiastic over the church, which has a congregation of 500. There is a new building now nearing completion, and when finished it will be one of the handsomest Baptist churches in the State.

Locals Drew Crowd.
The program last night at the Elks' Bazaar was pronounced the best and most popular that has yet been put on, and those present had nothing but praise for the performers, as well as the directress.

The musical specialties which made up the program were all highly original, and those who participated were all local talent. Notwithstanding the large crowd present on Polk Miller night, the audience last night was so large that one could hardly move in the hall.

The Indian song, backed by a chorus of eighteen party girls, in attractive costume, was excellent. The Japanese song, which was rendered by Mr. Burton, was excellent, and the girls participating looked well in the Oriental costume.

The double sextet, "A Moonlight Stroll," was up to the mark, and the six young ladies, who were dressed exceptionally well, and the music and words were very effective. Following the introductions of the several numbers, a fabulous sum of the company was shown, and various colored lights thrown upon it.

Mr. William Patton, assisted by the Misses Owen, accompanied the directress, making the entertainment a success, since they drilled the chorus and directed the company. Friday night will be another banner night in the entertainment line. Freeman and Wilson, well known to Manchester audiences, will be on the boards, and they will be assisted by Miss Lucile Ginter. The pieces to be rendered will be "In Vaudeville" and "The W. C. Jones and the Elks." These are burlesques, and they promise to make good in every particular.

Crocodile Jones.
Frank Anderson and Jim Nunnally have each received a handsome crocodile from C. C. Jones, who is now hibernating in Florida.

The "Jones twins" are now on exhibition in the window of Weisger and Anderson. They have been christened "C. C." and "Clear Water." It is needless to say why the latter is going to put a halter around his neck, as he does not desire that it shall stray through his apartment after he has gone to the Crocodile Camp.

To Boston Crosses.
The Chesterfield Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy have invited R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, Elks' Camp, Confederate Veterans, the R. E. Lee Camp Sons of Veterans, the Joseph E. Johnston Camp, Confederate Veterans, and the W. E. Woodbridge Camp, Confederate Veterans, to be present at the bestowal of crosses of honor, which will take place at Leader Hall, Manchester, on the night of May 21st, at 8 o'clock.

The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, have accepted an invitation to assist the Chesterfield Chapter in presenting the crosses to veterans of the Joseph E. Johnston and W. E. Woodbridge Camps, Confederate Veterans, and to non-camp members, and to make the occasion a joint one, presenting crosses of honor at the same time and place to veterans of Richmond camps.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., May 15.—Professor John R. Sampson, a widely known educator, and for over twenty years headmaster of Panopis Academy, in the South, passed away last night after a lingering illness of bright disease. For the past ten years he had been in bed.

S.S.S. A CERTAIN SAFE TREATMENT

Even if mercury and potash could cure Contagious Blood Poison the condition in which these strong minerals leave the system would make the "cure worse than the disease." But they cannot cure the vile disorder; they can only cover up the symptoms for awhile or mask the disease in the system, but as soon as the treatment is left off the hideous symptoms return. Mercury and potash eat out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, produce chronic dyspepsia by drying up the gastric juices, cause the teeth to decay, and often completely break down the constitution, and where they are used in large quantities, the bones become affected, while the disease for which one has so long taken this destructive treatment has not been cured. Contagious Blood Poison is a disease it will not do to trifle with. It is a vile, dangerous and destructive disorder. When the blood becomes infected with its virus the mouth and throat ulcerate, hair and eyebrows come out, glands in the neck and groin swell, copper-colored spots appear on the flesh, and in severe cases sores break out on the body, the finger nails drop off and the sufferer is diseased from head to foot. S. S. S. is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the one remedy that is able to get to the root of the disease and force out every particle of the poison so that there are never any signs of its return. It is purely vegetable, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks of known curative value. Instead of leaving bad after-effects as some medicines do, S. S. S. tones up every part of the system and puts every part of the body in perfect health. It will also remove any lingering effects of former mineral treatment while eradicating the poison from the circulation. Special book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write.

OPPOSING IMMIGRATION.

Farmers' Union of Georgia Strong Against Movement.

ATLANTA, GA., May 15.—The Farmers' Union of Georgia, went on record here to-day as opposing the present immigration movement. The resolution opposed the movement on the ground that it would bring into the State undesirable citizens; that it would crowd native Georgians from the factories by establishing lower wage rates, and that it would increase the production of cotton and thereby lower the prices of the staple. The resolution further urged upon the General Assembly at its coming session that no further appropriations in furtherance of the movement shall be made.

TRAGEDY MARKED GREAT MINNACON

Honorable Everglades Ran Down Float and Sailor Was Thrown Overboard and Drowned.

GEORGIA'S ANCHOR STUCK

Big Ship Tied to Bottom of Hampton Roads and Cannot Get Away.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, May 15.—Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, has a report from Lieutenant R. C. Bulmer, of the battleship Kearsarge, detailing a collision late Monday night between the Kearsarge and the ship's float in the Hampton Roads water carnival, as a result of which J. T. Baird, hospital apprentice, lost his life.

The report will be forwarded to Washington, preliminary to further investigation. The body of the drowned apprentice has not been recovered.

Colonel Thompson, formerly of Washington, well known in National Guard circles, and wealthy, went aboard the Kearsarge yesterday to see Captain Winslow, of the battleship, and the men whose lives were endangered by the action of the Everglades' captain in taking his craft into the naval lines and running down the float, on which was a representation of the marrying of Ponce de Leon and John Rolfe. Colonel Thompson expressed his deep sorrow and regret that his boat should have been the cause of a tragedy, and made known his intention of making to the family of the dead many reparations that money could make.

Georgia's Anchor Stuck.
When the battleship Georgia attempted to weigh anchor to-day and sail up the coast with the ships of the Italian fleet and several American vessels it was found that her anchor was caught and could not be weighed. The big ship is still off Old Point, held fast, and it is said that she is not able to suit for a day or two unless she leaves the anchor behind.

A wrecking tug or float will probably have to be used. It is said that Old Point that the officers of the Georgia tried the new-fangled English method of dropping anchor, and this is the cause for the trouble.

Foreign Ships Sail.
The Italian and Chilean warships assembled in Hampton Roads, and the United States battleship Connecticut, bearing the pennant of Rear-Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, together with the battleships Ohio, Iowa, Indiana, and Rhode Island sailed to-day.

They will return to Hampton Roads June 15th, and remain until after President Roosevelt's next visit to the Jamestown Exposition grounds, leaving on June 12th for Boston and later returning home.

The American battleships go to New York—the Connecticut, Iowa, Ohio and Indiana to North River, and the Rhode Island to Tompkinsville.

The only remaining foreign ships in Hampton Roads are the three Brazilians and the Argentine training cruiser, Presidente Sarmiento.
